LIGHT ON THE PIANO QUESTION

Our factory saw in selling more pianos they could build them at reduced expense. To sell more they must be sold at a reduced price, and by selling many more the aggregate profit is larger.

For years our pianos have been sold to agents wholesale at a price nearly the same as our price to the public now. We do this because we have done away with all agents and are opening our own stores all over the world. Think what a saving this means to you.

See us direct. We will prove our quality and the many advantages in dealing here.

SHOW AT GUDE'S

Largest and Finest Chrysanthemums, Roses, Violets, and Other Rare Flowers on Exhibit.

Thousands of flower lovers visited this exhibition yesterday, and were particularly interested in the display of trophies won by Gude Bros. at flower exhibits in Detroit, Boston, and the more recent Maryland State Fair at Laurel.

END OF COMMERCE
COURT IS NEAR

Creation of the Taft Administration Liable to Die with It on March 4.

The United States Commerce Court, a creation of the Taft administration, probably will die with the administration that brought it into being. The last session of Congress appropriated only a sufficient amount of money to pay the expenses of the court until March 4.

This was done after a conference with the President at which an agreement was reached that if President Taft was re-elected the Democrats would accept it as a vindication of his action in recommending the creation of the court and fighting to preserve it and would continue to appropriate money for its expenses.

At the same time the President was willing to concede that if he were defeated there would be no obligation on his part officially to keep up the fight to preserve the court. The Democrats were so hostile in their attitude toward the court that they refused to extend the appropriation until the end of the fiscal year. It has been suggested that if the state of the business in the court is such on March 4 that an extension of the appropriation to enable it to continue its business were deemed advisable Congress might extend the life of the tribunal until the end of the fiscal year. But the Commerce Court judges are not proceeding on any such theory, but are expediting the business before the court in an effort to put the House in order for March 4.

The Commerce Court judges will not go out of office as judges of the United States Circuit Court. The final form of the legislation as it passed retained them in office largely because some of the ablest constitutional lawyers in Congress doubted the capacity of the Senate and House to legislate Federal judges out of office. The judges who have been sitting in the Commerce Court may be assigned to work in the various circuits, but there will be no new appointments of circuit judges to fill the vacancies that may occur until the whole number is reduced to twenty-one, what it was before the additional judges created by the Commerce Court were named.

WILL CASE BEFORE JURY.

Estate of John C. Mothershead Contested by Several Heirs.

The contest brought by Anna M. Downs, a half-sister, Dorothy Loman, a half-niece, and several collateral heirs of the late John C. Mothershead, over his will devising an estate valued at $15,000 to a neighbor, Mrs. Ella Barnhardt, was on trial before a jury in Justice Gould's court yesterday and will be continued this morning.

The relative claim that Mr. Mothershead was not of sound mind when he executed the will, and also charges Mrs. Barnhardt with unduly influencing the testator, Mr. Mothershead lost his wife about two years before his death and thereafter lived alone. Mrs. Barnhardt rented the adjoining house from him and after the wife's death looked after his household.

EXCISE BOARD UPHOLD.

Has Exclusive Jurisdiction Over the Granting of Licenses in District.

Justice Robb, of the Court of Appeals, yesterday handed down an opinion upholding the claim of the Excise Board that it has exclusive jurisdiction over the granting of licenses in the District of Columbia. The court holds that the District Court has no power to authorize executors to continue a barroom when the license under which the business had been operated had expired. The court also sustained the right of the Excise Board to intervene when such an order had been passed by the court.

The judgment of the lower court in the case of the executors of the estate of Mrs. Anna B. Geiger, who obtained permission from the lower court to continue the saloon at 102 Indiana Avenue Northwest, after the Excise Board had refused to transfer to them the license issued to Mrs. Geiger.

The appeal was from an order of the District Supreme Court, sitting as a probate court, refusing the prayer of the intervening petition of the Excise Board that the court vacate an order which it had made "authorizing and directing" the continuance of the retail liquor business owned by Mrs. Geiger's estate.

TAFT EXPRESSES SYMPATHY.

President Grieved Over Assassination of Spanish Premier.

"Inexpressibly grieved at the news of the detestable crime which has bereaved Spain, I beg to assure your majesty of my own most sincere sympathy, and also that of the government and the people of the United States in this great loss which has fallen upon yourself and the Spanish nation."

Chile and Peru to "Make Up."

After an interruption of more than thirty years, diplomatic relations are about to be resumed between Chile and Peru, according to information received at the State Department yesterday.

It is understood that the resumption of diplomatic relations between the two South American republics is to follow the final settlement of the Tacna-Arica dispute, which has been the chief cause of the non-intercourse of the two governments.

And What Is of Greater Interest, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Enable the Stomach to Digest Whatever Is Eaten.

We all like to see the way healthy children devour their meals. Would we could all do the same! Eating ought to be a delight. It is one of life's chief enjoyments. People who cannot relish a good meal are apt to fall into those ill-tempered moods from which they view the world as a sorry place to live in. So let us learn to employ the best means of harmonizing our existence and thus extract from every day a grand old pleasure there is to be had. This we can do by keeping our stomachs in prime, active working order.

A majority of people have come to know the blessings which an occasional use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets confer upon the stomach. They are unquestionably the most popular remedy known for the reason that dyspepsia is the national disease, and these wonderful little tablets have long since acquired a national reputation as a thoroughly reliable and efficient cure for all forms of dyspepsia and indigestion.

No matter how great the excess of food taken into the stomach, one or two of these tablets will digest every particle of it. A package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should always be in the house.

Many a person has saved himself from a serious attack of acute indigestion by using them after heavy meals, such as are eaten Christmas, New Year's, Thanksgiving, and other holidays and festive seasons.

After attending banquets, late suppers, heavy fancy dinners after-theater parties, etc., where one has dined sumptuously and luxuriously, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should invariably be used, as they digest the food perfectly and completely prevent all possibility of dyspepsia, which, without their use, is more than likely to ensue.

Americans are exceedingly fond of the good things of life, and there is apt to be great excess of eating, and the only way to overcome its bad effects on the stomach is to employ a powerful and efficient digestive such as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which always insure a good digestion.
